

Master Class Alumni Benefits

- You are eligible to be featured on the CATCH website Trainers Directory. This provides online referrals, credibility and direct links to your website or social media page. The links from our site are a huge boost to help you come up higher in natural search results. To have a site of our size and popularity point to your website or social media is significant for your search engine optimization!
- You will receive two forms of your Professional Certificate:
 - A high-quality printed diploma suitable for framing.
 - A digital diploma ideal for display on your website (along with a digital seal to showcase your accomplishment of certification).
- You will be automatically included on job post emails when training companies in your area come to us with opportunities for CATCH graduates.
- You will receive readymade lesson plans along with business and career building prep tools.
- You will have access to the CATCH Study Guide in both print and online format (available forever and updated regularly).
- You are eligible for discounts on any additional CATCH program or upgrades, including our in-person workshops that people come from all over the world to experience. We provide the dogs and the professional facilities!
- Professional CATCH polo shirts and branded equipment such as training pouches and clickers are available to you for minimal purchase cost after graduation.
- You'll be automatically enrolled in the PetProHero online Pet CPR & First Aid certificate course.
- You will be treated as a valued member of our community from application to graduation and forever after! Just ask students who have come back to us months and years later for networking, business consulting, or preparation for additional national certifications.

- You are eligible for discounts on membership to the Association of Professional Dog Trainers.
 - Membership comes with the additional perk of discounts on trainer insurance through the Business Insurers of the Carolinas.
- Access valuable discounts from Dog*Biz – the number one company in the world at helping dog businesses succeed, offering everything from ready-made contracts, lesson plans and personalized consulting from the experts who have made it to the highest levels of our industry.
- Access discounts on website design services from Jen Chapman Creative, including a free consultation and discounts off a templated or a completely custom website. In addition to developing your website, Jen Chapman Creative offers training sessions on how to update your site and ongoing support. Jen has been building brands and websites for successful dog professionals for years.
- Discounts on dog and training products through the Doggone Good Clicker Company featuring your company's brand.
- Discounts on Nicole Wilde's books and DVDs, and access to advanced studies and consultations – directly with the author herself.
- Discounts from Dogwise Publishing – build an outstanding educational library of books and videos for dog professionals.
- Tuition discounts and preferred status with Cooperative Paws – a nationally renowned online school for studying service dog training with Veronica Sanchez.
